

Take appropriate evacuation actions to protect your life

Types of evacuation information

Alarm levels and conditions

Information to prompt action ⇒

Actions to be taken

5

Disaster occurrence
or risk of disaster

Emergency
safety assurance

Issued to the extent possible when a disaster occurrence is recognized.

⇒ Your life is in danger

Secure safety immediately!

Be sure to evacuate by the time a level 4 alarm is issued!

4

High risk of disaster

Evacuation
directive

⇒ Everyone must evacuate
from dangerous places

3

Risk of disaster

Evacuation
of the elderly,
etc.

⇒ Elderly and disabled
people must evacuate
from dangerous places

(other people should evacuate voluntarily in the case of danger).

2

Worsening weather conditions

Advisory
(from the Meteorological Agency)

⇒ Confirm
evacuation actions

1

Possibility of worsening weather conditions

Early advisory
(from the Meteorological Agency)

⇒ Prepare
for evacuation

Family members who take time to evacuate

☐ The elderly

☐ Those requiring assistance

☐ People who are sick

☐ Babies and small children

☐ Pregnant people

☐ Disabled people

I must evacuate at

E.g.) Alarm level 3, etc.

- Alarms are issued for floods, landslides, tidal waves and inland water flooding (not issued for tsunamis).
- When there is a high risk of disaster and it is dangerous to go to a designated evacuation area, move to a nearby safe place (nearby evacuation) or a safe room in the building (indoor safety assurance).
- Evacuate voluntarily if you feel danger, even if no instruction has been issued.

Obtain evacuation and weather information

TV (data broadcast)

Obtain the latest information from the news, etc. Disaster and evacuation information are issued via data broadcast.

Disaster radio broadcast

Evacuation information etc. is announced via outdoor speakers.

■ If you miss the announcement, please call the information service (automated phone service)

☎ 0180-99-7171

Kanazawa Bosai dot com (disaster information service)

Information regarding weather alarms and evacuation is sent to registered users via email.

■ Scan to register

Kanazawa City Website

Information regarding evacuation and opening of evacuation centers is published..

Obtain information via your smartphone

■ River water levels

Ishikawa Prefecture River Information System

■ Weather information

Kanazawa Local Meteorological Office

■ Landslide information

Ishikawa Prefecture Landslide Information System

Kanazawa City official social media & apps

Information regarding evacuation and disasters is issued in emergencies.

Twitter

LINE

iOS

Android

Kanazawa City official app

Prepare in advance

My family's evacuation place (evacuation center)

E.g.) XX elementary school, etc.

Write it down

My family's meeting place

Meeting places designated by your community, etc.

Write it down

My house is in a flooding area

☐ Yes

(Estimated water depth _____ m)

☐ No

My house is in a landslide (special) warning area

☐ Yes

☐ No

Confirm your evacuation route

Check the hazard map

Store three days of food to be taken to an evacuation center

